DISCOVER WHAT LOUDOUN COUNTY IS ALL ABOUT

The Discover Loudoun Program is made up of four sessions that demonstrate how daily government operations contribute to building better communities.

Discover Loudoun Participants:

- Build community leadership skills and learn how to “get involved.”
- Take a bus tour to explore our diverse county.
- Interact with various departments, businesses and non-profit agencies.
- Become proficient in identifying and using available resources.

SCHEDULE FOR MAY 2004

May 6, 8:30 AM - 3 PM

History/Bus Tour of Loudoun County

The bus tour will showcase a diverse cross-section of the county to provide a wide-angle look at business, agriculture, residential areas and more. Tour guides are from the Loudoun County Department of Economic Development.

May 13, 6 PM - 8 PM

Networking with County Departments and Non-Profits

Learn about available resources through an interactive panel discussion with county departments and non-profit agencies. This session provides the know-how to connect with appropriate agencies.

May 20, 6 PM - 8 PM

Orientation to Government

Learn about how local government operates, what services it provides to residents and how the state and local governments work together. Find out about issues currently being debated in your community. Special presentation by the County Administrator and County Legislative Liaison.

May 27, 6 PM - 8 PM

The Loudoun Connection

Identify your leadership qualities and participate in a mini-workshop on utilizing and building your leadership skills. Learn about opportunities available in the county to serve on boards, participate in Leadership Loudoun, volunteer and more.

WHY SHOULD I DISCOVER LOUDOUN?

Upon completion of the program, participants are more informed and familiar with the structure, functions and operations of Loudoun County.

Participants will leave with the knowledge and connections necessary to stay engaged in their community.

“Discover Loudoun demystified the process of government and gave me a gateway to getting more involved in the community.”
